4 DISCLAIMERS

- (a) (Risk of injury) You understand and acknowledge that participating in an Activity involves the potential to suffer physical injury, which may be serious or disabling. Participation in the Activity is at your own risk with full knowledge of the dangers involved, including, depending on the Activity selected by you, risk of physical injury, injury from equipment use, injury from contact with other participants, muscle and ligament strains, bruising, aggravation of a pre-existing injury, broken or fractured bones, illness due to the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, or even death.
- (b) (Pre-existing injury) If you have any pre-existing injury, medical condition or illness you must inform us before participating in an Activity. If you have had or have any existing injuries that may be of concern, we strongly encourage you to obtain medical advice and clearance for activity that may place pressure and tension on your injured region. This is especially important if you have a weakened joint structure due to a past dislocation or if you are recovering from surgery involving your ligaments and/or tendons. Lower back, shoulder, wrist and knee injuries tend to be most commonly aggravated by this type of exercise.
